This project, composed of three little ball games, is designed for Window Programming class.

Web Development & VBA

The web page is written in the combination of html, css and jquery, and the theme is about fitness. This project will be complete around June.

ADDITIONAL

Working Holiday in the Netherlands

I went on a working holiday during summer vacation in 2019 to practice English speaking and explore the world. I met various kinds of people and experienced chilling local life. It was really a priceless and fruitful period time to me. The people in the photo are other volunteers and the owner of the farm.
